

MONEY$MART

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT CAMP

What is Money$mart?

Money$mart is a financial management camp created specifically for Kansas middle school students. Money$mart is designed to offer middle school students training in sound personal financial philosophies and practices in a fun environment that enhances leadership and teamwork skills. Students engage in specific workshops regarding topics such as Money and Choices, Budgeting, Saving and Goal-Setting and Cash and Credit.

Who Sponsors Money$mart?

Money$mart dollars and sense camps are sponsored by Kansas State Treasurer Dennis McKinney and the Kansas Credit Union Association (KCUA).

When is Money$mart?

Money$mart camps are held throughout the state. Continue to watch this site for dates, locations, and registration information.

If you are interested in getting a Money$mart camp in your area, please e-mail us FinancialLiteracy@treasurer.state.ks.us or call:

Michelle Kaberline
Financial Literacy Coordinator
Kansas State Treasurer's Office
785-296-0645

What Will We Do at Money$mart?

A sample schedule for Money$mart follows. It will give you a good idea of how you'll be spending your time at Money$mart. You will need to come prepared to learn and to work, but also be prepared to have some fun. NOTE: Agenda is subject to change

MONEY$MART DOLLARS AND SENSE CAMP A G E N D A

REGISTRATION

WELCOME

ICEBREAKER

WORKSHOP #1: MONEY & CHOICES – “THINKING ECONOMICALLY”

S-T-R-E-T-C-H

WORKSHOP #2: BUDGETING

BREAK

FUN ACTIVITY

WORKSHOP #3: KEEPING YOUR INTEREST

LUNCH

WORKSHOP #4: SAVING & GOAL SETTING

S-T-R-E-T-C-H

WORKSHOP #5: CREDIT

FUN ACTIVITY

CLOSING SESSION